Tiny Match Flame In Hands Of 16-Year-Old Night Club Employee Starts Holocaust

Boston, Nov. 30 (AP)—A tiny match flame in the hands of a 16-year-old busboy touched off a lightning-like fire that snuffed out the lives of 477 Coconut Grove night club merry-makers and injured more than 200—many seriously—in one of the nation's worst holocausts.

Deputy Police Superintendent James R. Clafin quoted the youth, Stanley F. Tomaszewski, as saying that he accidentally ignited a paper palm tree that caused the terrific blaze which threw about 1,000 persons into a fighting, crawling panic in efforts to reach safety.

TROOP 77 WINS 1942 RALLY OF DISTRICT SCOUTS

Troop 77 of Gettysburg won the annual fall rally of the Black Walnut district of the Boy Scouts held on the Gettysburg high school field on Saturday afternoon by a half-point margin over Troop 80, also of Gettysburg.

The final score was: Troop 77, the Rotary-Lions sponsored troop, 19 1/2 points; Troop 80 of Christ Lutheran church, 18; Troop 70 of Ardenville, 6 1/2, and Troop 76 of St. Francis Xavier Catholic church, 7. About 30 scouts and six scout leaders including Dwight D. Crisp, field representative from the York-Adams area office at York, and District Commissioner Jack Cerna of Gettysburg attended the affair.

Three points were given for first place in each of the contests: two for second, and one for third on the basis of these results: Personal inspection, first, 70; second, 80, and third, 77; marching in review, first, 77; second, 78, and third, 70; model plane flying, first, 78, and second, 80; string burning with flint and steel, first, 77, second, 77, and third, 80; string burning with matches, first and second places, 77; knot tying, first, 77, second, 78, and third, 80; signifying, first, 80; and second, 77; scout pace contest won by Charles Bender of Troop 70 who came in within a half minute of perfect time over the mile course, with 77 and 70 tying for second place; verbal message relay, first, 80; second, 77, and third, 70; and two-o-war, first, 80; second, 78, and third, 77.

Toner building demonstrations then were given by members of Troops 77 and 78 with 77 being given first place. These results were not included in computing meet standings.

"Victory" Committee To Meet Tonight

Members of the Victory Fund committee of Adams county will hold an important dinner-meeting at 6 o'clock tonight at the Battlefield hotel, Edmund W. Thomas, chairman, announced today.

"The purpose of the meeting," Mr. Thomas explained, "is to discuss the new Victory Bonds which went on sale today throughout the nation in a drive to sell nine billion dollars worth of the new issue."

Every member of the Victory Fund committee is urged to attend tonight's meeting.

VICTORY FUND DRIVE FOR NINE BILLION OPENS

Members of the Victory Fund committees in the 60 counties including Adams county, comprising the Third Federal Reserve District started soliciting investors today to help the U. S. Treasury raise nine billion dollars for the war effort. This is the largest financing campaign in the history of the world.

This task was assigned to the Victory Fund members by the Secretary of the Treasury, Henry A. Morgenthau, Jr., who declares "Every American should lend every available dollar to our government. Every American corporation with available cash should purchase suitable Treasury issues. The Treasury department has created issues of securities to meet the requirements of all investors with accumulated savings or idle funds."

EX-POSTMASTER AND R.R. AGENT AT GULDENS DIES

George Harvey Duttera, 73, of Guldens, died Sunday morning at 5:55 o'clock from a complication of diseases. He was stricken ill on November 20 and removed to the Hanover general hospital a week ago where he passed away.

Mr. Duttera was born in Littlestown, a son of the late John and Mary (Maus) Duttera. He was postmaster at Guldens from November 8, 1913, until January 31, 1940. When Mr. Duttera retired the office closed. He also was freight and ticket agent for the Western Maryland railroad from 1913 until two years ago, when that office was discontinued. Mr. Duttera's father also served in a similar capacity for many years.

He is survived by his widow the former Miss Laura E. Beamer. The couple was married 32 years ago. Three children, Private John W. Duttera, Duncan Field, San Antonio, Texas; Mary E. Duttera, at home and Private George H. Duttera, Jr., Drew Field, Tampa, Florida, and two sisters and a brother, Miss Maggie Duttera, New Oxford; Mrs. Mary S. Rittase, New Oxford and John H. Duttera, New Oxford, survive.

The deceased was a lifelong member of St. Paul's Reformed church, New Oxford and he also was a member of Hebron Lodge of Masons, at New Oxford.

H. F. WETZEL, 40, FATHER OF NINE, FOUND DEAD ON ROAD NEAR ZORA

Harry Francis Wetzel, Fairfield R. D., 40-year-old laborer and father of nine children, was found lying in the middle of the Zora-Emmitsburg highway in Liberty township Saturday evening about 8:30 o'clock with his skull fractured in two places. Apparently he had died instantly.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams county coroner, and state motor police, who are investigating, believe he was the victim of a hit-and-run driver, although the possibility that Wetzel was the victim of foul play was being checked carefully.

The lifeless body was found by Private Philip A. Powell, en route with two young women from Rhode Island to his home at Johnstown. John Kessler, who runs a roadside stand a half mile east of the point where Wetzel was found, said the man left there on foot about 8 o'clock.

Skull Fracture Caused Death

Doctor Crist said a depressed fracture of the man's forehead and another fracture at the base of the skull caused death. The man apparently was uninjured otherwise and his clothes did not indicate he had been dragged or rolled along the road.

The police investigation of the death is being made by Private John M. Micka, of the traffic division of the Gettysburg subdivision of the state motor police, and by Private R. W. Wagner, of the criminal investigation division. The officers found particles of glass on the highway 200 feet east of the point where the body was found. They believe he was walking toward his home when he was struck by the protruding corner of a truck body.

Wetzel is survived by his widow, the former Mary Viola Turner, and nine children. He was a son of Charles and Mary Wetzel, who reside near Fairfield. He was a member of the Church of God and had lived all his life in the Fairfield section.

Services on Wednesday

The surviving children are: Mrs. William Fox, Fairfield R. D.; Harry, Richard, Margaret, John, Goldie, Mabel, Stanley and Ralph, all at home. There also is a sister surviving, Mrs. Joseph Kreitz, Fairfield R. D.

Funeral services meeting at the Allison funeral home at Fairfield on Wednesday at 1:30 o'clock with further services in the Friends' Creek Church of God at 2:30 o'clock with the Rev. Levi Wagaman, officiating. Interment in the cemetery adjoining the church.

Friends may call Tuesday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock at the funeral home.

NEW MILEAGE PLAN TO START

"S" gasoline ration stamps expire at midnight tonight as the new mileage rationing plan, linking the issuance of tires and tubes to the rationing of gasoline, becomes effective.

Up to noon today the county rationing board had received only 50 forms for making application for tires or tubes under the new plan but additional supplies are expected within a few days.

Under the "mileage rationing" set-up persons driving 560 miles or less per month will be entitled to a recap, if their tire carcass is recyclable, or to a new grade 3 tire or new tube, after an authorized tire inspector has inspected the tires and tubes now in use.

Tire inspectors that have been functioning in the county soon will be certified to continue inspections under the new plan in which the general procedure is similar to the old plan which limited tire and tube issuances to persons in specified businesses or occupations. Now the tires and tubes will be handed out to persons who have qualified for a gas ration.

Holders of "S" coupons who have applied for Certificates of War Necessity but have not yet received them can get a temporary issue of new "T" stickers at the local ration board offices. A future adjustment in the amount of gasoline granted will be made after the Certificates of War Necessity arrive.

FACES LOCAL CHARGE

Roy R. Reedy, Jr., Gettysburg R. 4, has been charged by Chief of Police Glenn Guise with driving too fast for conditions on center square, Saturday evening. The information was filed before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder who has issued a 10-day notice.

Service Planned For December 6 Cancelled

The patriotic memorial service scheduled to be held in the Majestic theatre, Sunday evening, December 6, has been cancelled.

The service originally was intended to pay tribute to the men from Adams county who lost their lives during the first year of the war; the anniversary of the entrance of the United States into the war and to pay tribute to the memory of the students at Gettysburg college who lost their lives since the war started.

The committee in charge of the services decided to cancel the exercise this year.

MRS. M. C. JONES EXPIRES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Blanche G. Jones, wife of M. C. Jones, 251 Frederick street, Hanover, died Sunday evening at 11:20 o'clock at her home following an extended illness. She was 56 years of age on June 16.

Mrs. Jones was a daughter of the late Lewis D. Sell, and Henrietta Alabaugh Sell, Hanover.

She was widely known in Gettysburg where she had a wide circle of friends and she was active in a number of clubs in this community.

The deceased is survived by her husband, M. C. Jones, general manager of the Gettysburg furniture factories and two children: Mrs. Clark Smith, wife of the Rev. Clark Smith, of York, and Ensign Philip M. Jones, now stationed at Anacostia field, Washington, D. C.

One sister, Mrs. John Sarbaugh, York street, Hanover; a brother, Lewis A. Sell, Frederick street, Hanover, and a grandchild also survive.

Mrs. Jones was a member of Trinity Reformed church and Sunday school of Hanover and was active in a number of the societies of the church.

Funeral services Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the late home with the Rev. Howard E. Sheely, her pastor, officiating, with interment in Mt. Olivet cemetery, Hanover.

10 COUNTY FIRMS ON HONOR ROLL

Ten firms in Adams county have received Certificates of Award and are now qualified to fly the "Minute Man Flag" as the flagpoles at their plants, Edmund W. Thomas, chairman of the War Bonds and Stamps Committee announced today.

Each of the ten firms has qualified for this honor by having at least 90 per cent of its employees support the war effort by the purchase of war bonds in amounts equivalent to ten per cent of the gross payroll of the firm.

Each firm may now purchase the "Minute Man Flag," a privilege bestowed only on those firms who support the war effort to the extent of 90 per cent of their employees on the official payroll savings plan.

The ten firms are:

Greenstone Grit Mill, Fairfield R. D.; Warner Brothers Majestic theatre, Gettysburg; Steacy and Wilton, company, Hanover R. D.; E. A. Shorb, McSherrystown; Henry E. Landis, Abbottstown; Golden cigar factory, Bonneauville; Keystone Garment company, Gettysburg; Bethlehem Stone company, Hanover R. D.; Prudential Insurance company, Gettysburg, and McSherrystown Cigar company, McSherrystown.

Motorist, Held For Court, Denies Charges

Harold Patterson, 19, rear of East Middle street, was held for January court on a charge of turning out the lights of his car to avoid identification after a hearing Saturday evening before Justice of the Peace John H. Baschelt. Patterson denied the charges and told the justice he was "home in bed" when Borough Officer Horace L. Bender was chasing a car over town streets after it failed to stop at Railroad and Carlisle streets on his signal. The officer says Patterson was the driver.

Patterson also was found guilty on four summary charges alleging violations of the traffic laws and was fined a total of $35 and costs. In default of payment he was jailed for 20 days—five days on each charge. He will remain in jail at the end of the 20 days unless he secures $500 bail on the court case.

The fines were levied for a stop sign violation, failing to stop at the signal of an officer, driving too fast for conditions and driving without an operator's license.

Paratrooper, Countian's Son, Dies In Action

Corporal W. Edwin Sprengle, 24, who was born while his father was enroute to France in World War I, was "killed in action" on November 9 in the "western European area," according to a telegram which has been received by the soldier's mother, Mrs. Carrie Sprengle, Fawn Grove, York county.

Corporal Sprengle was a son of Edwin Sprengle, Locust street, East Berlin, and had been overseas since June, serving as a paratrooper. He was inducted into the Army from Fawn Grove in March, 1941, and subsequently was stationed at Camp Croft, South Carolina; Fort Benning, Georgia, and Fort Bragg, North Carolina. Before going into the service he worked for the Fawn Grove Manufacturing company. Besides his parents, there is a sister, Miss Romaine Sprengle, Fawn Grove, surviving.

The young soldier was a grandnephew of the late Noah B. Sprengle, a well known resident of the East Berlin section.

Gets Deer Hour After Season Opens

Chester Chapman, Fairfield R. D., reports having shot a five-point deer weighing 110 pounds shortly before 9 o'clock this morning along Green Run.

The deer season opened at 8 o'clock this morning.

Herman Dehoff, Biglerville, killed an eight-point buck weighing 140 pounds this morning at 10:15 o'clock while hunting near the Arendtsville club camp in the South mountains.

Aerial Blows Help Isolate 2 Key Cities

London, Nov. 30 (AP)—British and American forces, supported by a rising tide of aerial blows at the enemy on both sides of the Mediterranean, have stormed forward to within less than 12 miles of Tunis in a drive which has all but isolated that city and Bizerte, main Axis-held strong point in Tunisia.

BULLETIN

Washington, Nov. 30 (AP)—James F. Byrnes, economic stabilization director, today removed all restrictions from increasing farm labor pay up to $2,400 a year, and prohibited farm wage cuts below the highest rate between January 1, 1942, and September 15, 1942, except upon consent of Secretary of Agriculture Wickard.

JAP DEFENSES ON GUINEA CUT; "FORTS" ACTIVE

(By The Associated Press)

Allied troops today were reported to have captured a beach 900 yards east of the beleaguered Japanese strong hold at Gona, New Guinea, and apparently cut the enemy's 10-mile coastal defense strip after U. S. Flying Fortresses smashed a new Japanese seaborne attempt to land reinforcements.

Front-line dispatches said Australian jungle fighters, supported by planes and artillery, had overrun the enemy's beach defenses near Gona and were pushing on toward Sanananda farther up the coast.

Japs Isolated

Several hundred Japanese were believed cut off in a pocket at Gona. American Fortress aircraft were officially credited with setting fire to two Japanese destroyers and forcing two others to sea in breaking up the enemy's latest attempt to land reinforcements.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters said the big Fortress planes scored direct hits with 500-pound bombs in two of the enemy warships and both were believed to have sunk later.

American and Australian troops were reported maintaining steady pressure on Japanese forces hemmed on three sides along a 10-mile coastal strip between Buna and Gona, but there was little change in the general situation.

Nazi Vessel Intercepted

Gen. MacArthur also reported that Allied Naval forces had intercepted an 8,000-ton German auxiliary west of Australia, blasted the vessel with gunfire and captured.

The Allied advance was disclosed today by a headquarters communique which said fighting now was progressing east of Djedaida, which is 12 miles northwest of Tunis on the Tunis-Bizerte railroad. This indicated the Allies were driving a wedge straight toward the coast to separate the Axis strongholds.

Bizerte Target of Allies

Bizerte was the target of an attack by Allied planes which scored hits on the Naval base, the communique said, and Allied fighters were credited with destruction of four enemy planes in operations over forward areas.

A storm of Allied aerial bombs burst upon the Axis in north Africa and Italy last night and yesterday, underscoring Prime Minister Churchill's declaration that the enemy soon would be cast from his African toeholds and that the Italians must get out of the war or be bombed out.

Tunis, Bizerte and Tripoli were targets of new punishing attacks over the week-end in a prelude to impending assaults by American and British land forces in Africa, and the great Italian industrial city of Turin shuddered to the impact of RAF bombs last night for the second time in 24 hours.

Shipping and harbors were blasted at three Axis-held African ports and. (Please Turn to Page 5)

GERMANS LOSE DON STRONGHOLD

Moscow, Nov. 30 (AP)—Soviet shock troops have wrested another Don river stronghold from the Germans under clearing skies on the Stalingrad front and are pressing westward through a blizzard in the parallel offensive west of Moscow, the Russians said today.

Germans were declared to be dying at the rate of 10,000 daily as Red Army divisions pushed across the snow, utilizing tactics perfected in the 1941-42 winter drive.

While clouds vanished, cold prevailed in the Stalingrad area. Wind. (Please Turn to Page 2)

FIGHTING ENDS ON REUNION ISLE

London, Nov. 30 (AP)—The Vichy radio announced that French resistance to British occupation of the island of Reunion ended at 8:45 a. m. today.

British Imperial forces, largely South African troops, were reported by a Vichy communique Saturday to have landed on Reunion, in the Indian ocean 400 miles east of British-occupied Madagascar.

Announcing that they had seized the town of Saint-Denis La Reunion, the Saturday bulletin said "resistance is being organized."

A French possession since 1943, Reunion was the last island of the French empire to remain under Vichy's control.

(While the reports of the occupation were not immediately confirmed by Allied quarters, this would be a logical expansion of footholds taken by the Allies in the Indian ocean area to combat Axis submarine and espionage activities.)

RAF Follows Churchill's Warning To Italy With Attack On Arsenal City

(By The Associated Press)

RAF warplanes blasted Italy before dawn today for the second time in 36 hours, pounding home Prime Minister Churchill's warning to the Italian people to get out of the war or suffer a "prolonged, scientific and shattering air attack."

Simultaneously, a Reuters (British news agency) dispatch from the Italian frontier reported that 300,000 persons had fled the Italian arsenal city of Turin, normal population 622,000, since the RAF began its new trans-Alpine aerial offensive October 27.

The British air ministry said Turin was again the target of the latest assault and that fires started Saturday night were still burning.

"Other bombers attacked railway communications in Belgium," the air ministry said, reporting two RAF planes missing.

More than 100,000 incendiaries in addition to 8,000-pound "block-busters" were unloaded on Turin in the RAF's Saturday night raid, and a Canadian pilot declared the city's buildings were left "seething as though they were bubbling with molten lava."

Travelers arriving in Turkey from Italy said the Germans were hurriedly building fortifications along the German-Italian frontier and along the Balkan side of the Adriatic sea against the day that Italy quits the war.

Other reports said Adolf Hitler had sent 50,000 "anti-tank" units into Italy in an attempt to prevent the Italians from making a separate peace.

In a victory broadcast yesterday, Prime Minister Churchill promised that the war would soon be carried to Italy "in a manner not hitherto dreamed of by its guilty leaders."

He added significantly: "We expect to expel the enemy before long from the 2,000 miles of African coastline. But Africa is no halting place. It is not a seat but a springboard. We shall use Africa to come to closer grips."

MRS. M. C. JONES EXPIRES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Blanche G. Jones, wife of M. C. Jones, 251 Frederick street, Hanover, died Sunday evening at 11:20 o'clock at her home following an extended illness. She was 56 years of age on June 16.

Mrs. Jones was a daughter of the late Lewis D. Sell, and Henrietta Alabough Sell, Hanover.

She was widely known in Gettysburg where she had a wide circle of friends and she was active in a number of clubs in this community.

The deceased is survived by her husband, M. C. Jones, general manager of the Gettysburg furniture factories and two children: Mrs. Clark Smith, wife of the Rev. Clark Smith, of York, and Ensign Philip M. Jones, now stationed at Anacostia Field, Washington, D. C.

One sister, Mrs. John Sarbaugh, York street, Hanover; a brother, Lewis A. Sell, Frederick street, Hanover, and a grandchild also survive.

Mrs. Jones was a member of Trinity Reformed church and Sunday school of Hanover and was active in a number of the societies of the church.

Funeral services Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the late home with the Rev. Howard E. Sheely, her pastor, officiating, with interment in Mt. Olivet cemetery, Hanover.

10 COUNTY FIRMS ON HONOR ROLL

Ten firms in Adams county have received Certificates of Award and are now qualified to fly the "Minute Man Flag" from the flagpoles at their plants, Edmund W. Thomas, chairman of the War Bonds and Stamps Committee announced today.

Each of the ten firms has qualified for this honor by having at least 90 per cent of its employees support the war effort by the purchase of war bonds in amounts equivalent to ten per cent of the gross payroll of the firm.

Each firm may now purchase the "Minute Man Flag," a privilege bestowed only on those firms who support the war effort to the extent of 90 per cent of their employees on the official payroll savings plan.

The ten firms are:

Greenstone Grit Mill, Fairfield R. D.; Warner Brothers Majestic theatre, Gettysburg; Steacy and Wilton, company, Hanover R. D.; E. A. Shorb, McSherrystown; Henry E. Landis, Abbottstown; Golden cigar factory, Bonneauville; Keystone Garment company, Gettysburg; Bethlehem Stone company, Hanover R. D.; Prudential Insurance company, Gettysburg, and McSherrystown Cigar company, McSherrystown.

Motorist, Held For Court, Denies Charges

Harold Patterson, 19, rear of East Middle street, was held for January court on a charge of turning out the lights of his car to avoid identification after a hearing Saturday evening before Justice of the Peace John H. Bashore. Patterson denied the charges and told the justice he was "home in bed" when Borough Officer Horace I. Bender was chasing a car over town streets after it failed to stop at Railroad and Carlisle streets on his signal. The officer says Patterson was the driver.

Patterson also was found guilty on four summary charges alleging violations of the traffic laws and was fined a total of $35 and costs. In default of payment he was jailed for 20 days—five days on each charge. He will remain in jail at the end of the 20 days unless he secures $500 bail on the court case.

The fines were levied for a stop sign violation, failing to stop at the signal of an officer, driving too fast for conditions and driving without an operator's license.

Paratrooper, Countian's Son, Dies In Action

Corporal W. Edwin Sprengle, 24, who was born while his father was enroute to France in World War I, was "killed in action" on November 9 in the "western European area," according to a telegram which has been received by the soldier's mother, Mrs. Carrie Sprengle, Fawn Grove, York county.

Corporal Sprengle was a son of Edwin Sprengle, Locust street, East Berlin, and had been overseas since June, serving as a paratrooper. He was inducted into the Army from Fawn Grove in March, 1941, and subsequently was stationed at Camp Croft, South Carolina; Fort Benning, Georgia, and Fort Bragg, North Carolina. Before going into the service he worked for the Fawn Grove Manufacturing company. Besides his parents, there is a sister, Miss Romaine Sprengle, Fawn Grove, surviving.

The young soldier was a grandnephew of the late Noah B. Sprengle, a well known resident of the East Berlin section.

Gets Deer Hour After Season Opens

Chester Chapman, Fairfield R. D., reports having shot a five-point deer weighing 110 pounds shortly before 9 o'clock this morning along Green Run.

The deer season opened at 8 o'clock this morning.

Herman Dehoff, Biglerville, killed an eight-point buck weighing 140 pounds this morning at 10:15 o'clock while hunting near the Arendtsville club camp in the South mountains.

JAP DEFENSES ON GUINEA CUT; "FORTS" ACTIVE

(By The Associated Press)

Allied troops today were reported to have captured a beach 900 yards east of the beleaguered Japanese strong hold at Gona, New Guinea, and apparently cut the enemy's 10-mile coastal defense strip after U. S. Flying Fortresses smashed a new Japanese seaborne attempt to land reinforcements.

Front-line dispatches said Australian jungle fighters, supported by planes and artillery, had overrun the enemy's beach defenses near Gona and were pushing on toward Sannanda farther up the coast.

Japs Isolated

Several hundred Japanese were believed cut off in a pocket at Gona. American Fortresses were officially credited with setting fire to two Japanese destroyers and forcing two others to sea in breaking up the enemy's latest attempt to land reinforcements.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters said the big Fortress planes scored direct hits with 500-pound bombs in two of the enemy warships and both were believed to have sunk later.

American and Australian troops were reported maintaining steady pressure on Japanese forces hemmed on three sides along a 10-mile coastal strip between Buna and Gona, but there was little change in the general situation.

Nazi Vessel Intercepted

Gen. MacArthur also reported that Allied Naval forces had intercepted an 8,000-ton German auxiliary west of Australia, blasted the vessel with gunfire and captured (Please Turn to Page 2)

Aerial Blows Help Isolate 2 Key Cities

London, Nov. 30 (AP)—British and American forces, supported by a rising tide of aerial blows at the enemy on both sides of the Mediterranean, have stormed forward to within less than 12 miles of Tunis in a drive which has all but isolated that city and Bizerte, main Axis-held strong point in Tunisia.

The Allied advance was disclosed today by a headquarters communiqué which said fighting now was progressing east of Djedeida, which is 12 miles northwest of Tunis on the Tunis-Bizerte railroad. This indicated the Allies were driving a wedge straight toward the coast to separate the Axis strongholds.

Bizerte Target of Allies

Bizerte was the target of an attack by Allied planes which scored hits on the Naval base, the communiqué said, and Allied fighters were credited with destruction of four enemy planes in operations over forward areas.

A storm of Allied aerial bombs bust upon the Axis in north Africa and Italy last night and yesterday, underscoring Prime Minister Churchill's declaration that the enemy soon would be cast from his African footholds and that the Italians must get out of the war or be bombed out.

Tunis, Bizerte and Tripoli were targets of new punishing attacks over the week-end in a prelude to impending assaults by American and British land forces in Africa, and the great Italian industrial city of Turin shuddered to the impact of RAF bombs last night for the second time in 24 hours.

Shipping and harbors were blasted at three Axis-held African ports and (Please Turn to Page 5)

FIGHTING ENDS ON REUNION ISLE

London, Nov. 30 (AP)—The Vichy radio announced that French resistance to British occupation of the island of Reunion ended at 8:45 a. m. today.

British Imperial forces, largely South African troops, were reported by a Vichy communiqué Saturday to have landed on Reunion, in the Indian ocean 400 miles east of British-occupied Madagascar.

Announcing that they had seized the town of Saint Denis La Reunion, the Saturday bulletin said "resistance is being organized."

A French possession since 1643, Reunion was the last island of the French empire to remain under Vichy's control.

(While the reports of the occupation were not immediately confirmed by Allied quarters, this would be a logical expansion of footholds taken by the Allies in the Indian ocean area to combat Axis submarine and espionage activities.)

RAF Follows Churchill's Warning To Italy With Attack On Arsenal City

(By The Associated Press)

RAF warplanes blasted Italy before dawn today for the second time in 36 hours, pounding home Prime Minister Churchill's warning to the Italian people to get out of the war or suffer a "prolonged, scientific and shattering air attack."

Simultaneously, a Reuters (British news agency) dispatch from the Italian frontier reported that 300,000 persons had fled the Italian arsenal city of Turin, normal population 622,000, since the RAF began its new trans-Alpine aerial offensive October 22.

The British air ministry said Turin was again the target of the latest assault and that fires started Saturday night were still burning.

"Other bombers attacked railway communications in Belgium," the air ministry said, reporting two RAF planes missing.

More than 100,000 incendiaries in addition to 8,000-pound "block-busters" were unloaded on Turin in the RAF's Saturday night raid, and a Canadian pilot declared the city's buildings were left "seething as though they were bubbling with molten lava."

Travelers arriving in Turkey from Italy said the Germans were hurriedly building fortifications along the German-Italian frontier and along the Balkan side of the Adriatic sea against the day that Italy quits the war.

Other reports said Adolf Hitler had sent 80,000 Nazi "tourists" into Italy in an attempt to prevent the Italians from making a separate peace.

In a victory broadcast yesterday, Prime Minister Churchill promised that the war would soon be carried to Italy "in a manner not hitherto dreamed of by its guilty leaders." And he added significantly:

"We expect to expel the enemy before long from the 2,000 miles of African coastline. But Africa is no halting place. It is not a seat but a springboard. We shall use Africa to come to closer grips."

The Push Tells All

I hope you don't need to be pushed or towed to get a start this winter but if the cards are against you and you suffer this seemingly minor experience I hope you'll draw a few conclusions from the affair. I'll be satisfied if you merely deduce that the promptness with which an engine probably will go off incited beyond the shadow of a doubt that starter cranking speed has not been fast enough. When the engine starts without further ado, following a brief push, you know that it merely needed a little extra cranking. So check into causes of slow cranking speed. These include the starter-motor itself, its brushes, commutator, connections and bearing. Battery weakness is another basic reason for slow cranking. But topping these is your selection of lubricating oil. Light oil slows cranking speed.

sounds quite tricky, yet it's just one of the details of the modern engine's carburetion system. One way to tell if the cracker isn't functioning properly is to note how the engine behaves after starting on a cold morning. It should idle fast until warmed up. That's what the cracker does. It "cracks" the throttle so that it is open enough for fast idling.

This fast idle mechanism does get out of whack and thus should be checked over when you can think to put it on your list of needed attentions. If, however, the engine is stored in a heated garage you then have something approximating summer conditions and shouldn't suspect trouble with the cracker if there is no fast idling.

His Plan Is Best

I asked one reader if he had ever noticed that during the warming up period there is tendency for the car to be more difficult to slow down. His reply was helpful "Never notice any early running problems," he explained, "because I never start good plan to remember that the engagement of plates occurs during the last part of clutch pedal travel and not as the pedal is first coming up. There are exceptions to this, of course, but in general we can say that you have to be most careful of the clutch just at that point of pedal travel when you naturally feel that the plates are almost engaged anyway. Where a clutch is of the "fast" type the engagement is at the beginning of the upward movement of the pedal. Where the clutch is designated as "slow" the situation is just the reverse. The average clutch is nearer the "slow" than the "fast" type. So avoid slipping the plates by light pressure on the clutch pedal, and go easy as you are taking your foot off the pedal.

Now You Ask One

Q. Nothing seems to cure a persistent case of vapor leak during hill climbing. I presume I could rig up an electric drive for the fuel pump. Have you a better suggestion? H. B.

A. What about the wiring to that particular cylinder? The insulation may look good but the wire inside the cable may be broken.

Q. Since having the car's radio fixed I have had difficulty starting the engine. What connection could there be between the two? I have also installed a new battery. Even the spark plugs are new, having changed to a slightly different heat type. I hope you can help. Wm. D. L.

A. I hope so, too. How about a suppressor on the ignition coil? Some types of suppressors slow down the start. If a radio suppressor has been put on the coil take it off and try starting a few mornings. If starts are normal again then switch to a different type of suppressor.

Mr. Russell will answer questions regarding the safe care and operation of your car. Just address him care of the Gettysburg Times and enclosed stamped, self-addressed envelope for personal reply.

speaking or towing, I have an interesting communication from an experienced motorist who tells me that one reason he has been able to extract over 75,000 miles from his present car is because he never uses another car a push or a tow. Foolish? I wouldn't say so. Service stations employ tow cars for just reasons purpose—bushy vehicles that are built to stand the strain. Towing is part of your service from automobile club membership. It should not involve risk-meaning people who run the risk of burning tires and putting their cars in the shop's warmed up enough for the day's work."

This he never noticed that if he should try to slow down with the engine idling fast he would be working against the engine, unless decelerating sooner. This feels many drivers. They actually believe that brakes are not up to par whereas the brakes are simply overworking.

Word To The Wise

Motorists who store their cars in damp places should be careful to keep the coil, distributor and high tension wiring clean at all times.

The Motor Primer

Don't blame you. But perhaps there will be less confusion when I collect on such parts, especially the coil, moisture will cause external shorting. The primer provides a handy trap for the moisture.

incline as do the rear ones. The vernicle of a rear wheel from a particle piece is known as camber, and it is measured in degrees for comparison. Caster is the forward or rearward tilt of the king bolt at its upper end. This caster serves to keep the car to a true course. The action is like that of furniture casters.

There is also king pin inclination. This is inward inclination of the king bolt to eliminate the need for steering member. Finally, we have toe.

Office of Price Administration officials in Washington later made clear there would be no freezing of gasoline sales anywhere. Before the

to identify bodies, many of them charred beyond recognition.

A board of inquiry, including fire officials, U. S. Navy representatives—there were servicemen among the dead—and two representatives of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, which began its probe yesterday, reconvened today.

Other Tragedies

The death toll ranked only behind the steamship General Slocum fire of 1904 in New York's East River in which 1,021 died, Chicago Iroquois theatre fire in 1903, which claimed 602 lives, and the San Francisco earthquake and fire of 1906 in which 500 died.

Deputy Fire Chief John F. McDonough told investigating officials that he found a number of bodies, some within ten feet of a door equipped with a panic lock designed to open under pressure, but it was out of order and had been secured by another lock.

The death of many of the victims was ascribed by Medical Examiner Timothy Leary to monoxide poisoning and smoke inhalation. He said that a number were "terribly burned" after death.

Girl Shouted "Fire"

The stampede for the exit began, fire officials said, when a girl, detecting a thin wisp of smoke curling along the walls, shouted "fire," and within seconds the crowd broke for the doorways.

The wrecked stucco building resembled a huge brick oven after the flames had been extinguished, with hardly a scorched spot on the outside walls and roof, but with the interior a mass of debris.

Among notables who escaped from the inferno were Charles (Buck) Jones, Van Nuys, Calif., cowboy star of the motion pictures, who was critically burned, and Scott Dunlap, also of Van Nuys, motion picture producer, who was injured and among those hospitalized.

Former Athletes Die

Other widely known persons who either perished or were injured include: Edward Ansin, Brookline, Mass., president of the Interstate Theater corporation and treasurer of a Boston textile firm, dead; Robert Beverly Charles, 28, Winchester, Mass., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Charles of Oak Park, Ill., and eastern manager of a Chicago candy company, dead; Dr. Gordon Bennett, of Swampscott, captain of the 1937 Dartmouth football team, dead; Joseph A. Boratyn, star fullback of the Holy Cross football team a year ago, dead.

Norine Helen Welch, 17, daughter of Vincent S. Welch of Port Washington, N. Y., vice president of the Equitable Life Insurance society, dead; Mary Ellen McCormack, niece of U. S. Rep. John W. McCormack, dead; Grace McDermott, 200 West 54th street, New York, entertainer at the club—known under the stage name of "Vaughn," dead; Katherine Woods, 22, daughter of Carl Woods, Boston manufacturer, president of the Crosby Steam Gauge company, dead.

Youth Working Illegally

Police Commissioner Joseph F. Timilty indicated, in an interview, that the youth who innocently started the fire should have been barred by law from working in the club.

"Isn't it against the law for a boy that age to work in a place where liquor is sold?" newsmen asked the commissioner.

"Well," he said, "you know the rules. He isn't supposed to."

"There is no doubt that the boy started the fire," Timilty added, "and there is no doubt that it was accidental."

Clavin quoted the boy as saying: "A patron came into the place and unscrewed a bulb in the ceiling. This made the room too dark. One of the waiters came to me and asked me to screw the bulb back in."

Jump With Clothes Burning

"I stood on a chair to do it. I lighted a match and held it while I screwed the bulb in with the other hand. The match set fire to the palm tree. That is how the fire started."

A number of those who escaped leaped from the roof of the low building to the tops of automobiles and thence to the street. The clothes of some were in flames.

A revolving door trapped a number of persons when it became jammed by a pileup of bodies, and one body was even found in a telephone booth.

Recalls Living Torches

Harry Glasheen, an Associated Press reporter, assisted firemen in pulling more than 20 persons from the building. He said he saw signs of life in only two—one a man and the other a woman.

Thirty-six hours after that incident Glasheen said he could "still hear the screams of the dying. I can still recall the stories of the living torches running wildly about trying to get away from the swift-reaching flames and suffocating smoke. I can still see 30 or more bodies huddled on the floor of a garage, transformed into a morgue, some of them so horribly burned it will be difficult to ever identify them positively."

Air Corps Captain Is Home On Leave

Captain Edmund W. Thomas, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund W. Thomas, Sr., West Lincoln avenue, is spending a ten-day leave at his home here.

Captain Thomas, recently promoted from the rank of first lieutenant, is an instructor at a combat crew school in Flying Fortresses, Hendricks Field, Sebring, Florida.

The local flier entered the Air Corps two years ago and completed all the advanced courses in flying at flight and technical schools and flying fields. He has received two promotions since receiving his first commission a little more than a year ago.

tion had contributed to the Saturday night fire that suddenly converted the Coconut Grove night club into a house of flaming death for 477 merry-makers.

Moving under instructions from Acting Safety Commissioner John P. Stokes, state Fire Marshal Stephen C. Garrity turned over to District Attorney William J. Foley of Suffolk county a preliminary report of the fire that flared from a match flame lighted by a 16-year-old bus boy as he sought to replace a light bulb removed by a club patron.

Meanwhile, a hundred bodies still lay unnamed and unlabeled in the city's morgues, posing a terrific problem of identification to officials who said that many had been burned past recognition.

In undertaking establishments throughout New England, preparations were underway for the hundreds of funerals that will carry the bodies of the victims to their graves.

Hospitals ministered to more than 170 other trampled and burned patients—many of whom hovered close to death.

As he entered a conference with the state fire marshal, District Attorney Foley declared, "If some of the stories I have read are true, there have been several law violations in connection with the operation of the club."

Fire Marshal Garrity's preliminary report embodies information given at inquest, which will be resumed late today, including the testimony of the first Boston fire chiefs to reach the scene.

They testified that the searing flames spreading through paper palm trees and other decorations sent a thousand patrons stampeding in a fighting frenzy toward a few exits.

A deputy fire chief told of finding bodies near a closed door whose safety lock—designed to open under pressure—was out of order. Police

Engagements

Fowler—Shuman

Mr. and Mrs. C. Ross Shuman, East Broadway, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marian Annette Shuman, to Harold Henderson Fowler, an officer candidate at Fort Benning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fowler, of Williamsport.

Miss Shuman was graduated from Gettysburg high school and attended Gettysburg college where she was a member of the Chi Omega sorority. She is at present affiliated with the State Highway department in Harrisburg.

Mr. Fowler is a graduate of the Williamsport high school and of Temple university, Philadelphia. He is a member of the Delta Tau Omega fraternity.

No date has been set for the marriage.

Murray—Nebraska

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nebraska, of Uniontown, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Eleanor Louise Nebraska, to PFC Charles W. Murray, North Stratton street.

Miss Nebraska is a graduate of the Red Stone high school and of the Pennsylvania State Business college, Harrisburg. She is affiliated with the State Highway department, Harrisburg.

Mr. Murray, a graduate of the Gettysburg high school, was formerly employed by the State Revenue department, Harrisburg. He is now stationed with the United States Army at Camp Forrest, Tennessee.

McClaff—Redding

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Redding, Gettysburg, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Annabelle, to William R. McClaff, Orrtanna.

Miss Redding graduated from the Gettysburg parochial school in 1939. Mr. McClaff graduated from Gettysburg high school in 1939 and is now employed in farming.

5 Men, Hurt In Fight, Arrested

Five men who formerly had worked at the Heller fruit farm, near Bendersville, were arrested Sunday afternoon about 2 o'clock and after being treated at the Warner hospital for cuts and bruises were committed to jail here. The officers, who made the arrests on warrants issued by Justice of the Peace E. H. Myers, of Idaville, said the men had been hurt in a brawl. John Black, manager of the fruit farm, filed the information.

The arresting officers were Sheriff D. J. Wolff, Constable Horace L. Bender and Corporal F. C. Russell and Private George Ackerson, of the Gettysburg detail of the state motor police. The prisoners, who will be given hearings this evening, are John George, York; John Carson, Harrisburg; Francis Wirth, Millersburg; Glenn DeHaven, Martinsburg, West Virginia, and John McCarthy, New York city.

2 DISORDERLY CHARGES

Bass Heaton, Wilmington, West Virginia, and Gilbert Meeks, Cincinnati, Ohio, were arrested in Gettysburg Saturday afternoon by Borough Officer Charles W. Culp, Jr., on charges of disorderly conduct brought before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder.

Commissioner Joseph F. Timilty indicated in an interview that under the law, a 16-year-old boy "isn't supposed to" work in a place where liquor is sold.

Looking for Sammy

Boston, Nov. 30 (AP)—A silent film moved slowly, hugging the brick wall that led to the door of the northern mortuary, where the bodies of many of the 400-odd victims of Saturday's Coconut Grove Night club fire lay unidentified.

Stunned by their own grief, those waiting scarcely turned when a little old lady wrapped peasant-style in shawl and kerchief shuffled toward the door. A police sergeant stepped forward to meet her.

"My Sammy," she faltered. "He didn't come home. He always comes home."

"Do you think you could identify him?" asked the sergeant.

"He's my Sammy," she responded simply.

After a brief conference, she was ushered to the garage where the bodies lay, row on row. At the sight, the old lady turned away.

"I'll tell you what he looks like. Maybe you could tell them if he is in there."

But when her description was concluded, the sergeant slowly shook his head. "I'm afraid I couldn't tell," he said.

She stood confused. "I have nobody else. What will I do?" Then she shuffled away.

A man stepped forward and offered her a seat in his automobile.

And there she sat as the gray afternoon dimmed to twilight and darkness fell. The silent line moved on, and on.

At last, the little old lady slipped out of the car—and shuffled away from the faint radiance of the dimmed out street light—and on into the shadows to the west end flat to which Sammy had not returned.

DEATHS

In York for the past several months, came to Gettysburg to spend the week-end as was his custom. Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock he complained of feeling ill. At midnight Saturday his condition became serious and death ensued at 3:40 o'clock Sunday morning. Mr. Fissel was employed at the York Ice Machinery company for the past two weeks.

The deceased was born in Adams county, a son of the late Cyrus and Jennie (Bollinger) Fissel. He always resided in the county with the exception of the few months he resided in York. He was a salesman and farmer.

Mr. Fissel was a lifelong member of Mt. Joy Lutheran church.

He is survived by his widow, the former Miss Clara Coshum, and one son, Maurice Fissel, York, and two grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Fissel observed their 35th wedding anniversary last Tuesday.

Brief funeral services from his late home Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock with further services in Mt. Joy Lutheran church, with the Rev. Herbert Schmidt, of Woodsboro, Maryland, officiating, with burial in Mt. Joy cemetery.

Friends may call at the home Tuesday evening after 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Ellen L. Hardman

Mrs. Ellen L. Hardman, 87, widow of Joseph Hardman, died at Pennersville, Franklin county, at 3:45 o'clock on Saturday afternoon from a complication of diseases. She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson and was a member of St. Jacob's Reformed church at Fountaineau.

Surviving are these children: Lewis H. Hardman, Gettysburg, R. D.; Charles F. Hardman, Greensboro; Mrs. John Gladhill, Waynesboro; Mrs. Walter Richard, Gettysburg; Mrs. Roy Bierley, and Mrs. Norman Kint, both of Pennersville. There are 16 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren also surviving.

Funeral services Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Allison funeral home in Fairfield with interment in the Methodist cemetery at Fountaineau. The Rev. Mr. Werner, of Waynesboro, will officiate. Friends may call this evening from 7 to 9 o'clock at the funeral home.

Mrs. Charles D. Summers

Mrs. Alberta Rose Summers, 71, wife of Charles D. Summers, died at her home in Fairfield on Sunday evening after having been seriously ill since August 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Summers observed the forty-ninth anniversary of their wedding on Sunday, November 22, just a week before her death. The deceased was a daughter of the late Martin and Anna (Hance) Loy and was a member of the Elias Evangelical Lutheran church of Emmitsburg.

Surviving are her husband and these children: Samuel L. Summers, Baltimore; Russell M. Summers, Fairfield; Harry C. Donald D. and Thurman H. Summers, all of Waynesboro; Frank T. Emmitsburg; Mrs. William Eisenheiser, Baltimore; and Mrs. Joseph Wehrheim, Alexandria, Virginia. There are three grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Charles Matthews, Baltimore, also surviving.

Funeral services Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the Allison funeral home at Fairfield with the Rev. Philip Bower, officiating. Interment in Mount Airview cemetery, Emmitsburg. Friends may call Wednesday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock at the funeral home.

Robert H. Ecker

Struck by a Hanover bakery truck as he walked along the Lincoln highway, about five miles west of York, Robert H. Ecker, 75, a native of Legore, Maryland, and a former resident of Hanover, was killed instantly about 8 o'clock Friday evening. His death was attributed to a skull fracture and a broken neck, according to Dr. L. U. Zech, county coroner.

Coroner Zech said that the truck, owned by Houck's bakery, Hanover, was driven by Howard Hess, Hanover. In a statement to the coroner Mr. Hess said that Ecker was walking in the middle of the highway and when he saw him he attempted to stop the truck but was unable to avoid hitting him.

Formerly employed by the Legore Lime company, Mr. Ecker is survived by his wife, Rosa Strine Ecker, Legore, Maryland; three sons, Robert H., Norman C. and Howard Ecker, Legore; three daughters, Mrs. Charles E. Gladfield, Hanover; Mrs. Bruce Willhide, York, and Mrs. Clarence Anders, Legore; one brother, Charles Ecker, Gettysburg; one sister, Mrs. Edward Graham, Legore, and 13 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

HOSPITAL REPORT

David Stanton, Jr., West Breckinridge street, and Maurice Felix, Gettysburg, R. 2, submitted to operations at the Warner hospital Sunday for the removal of their appendices. Walter Spear, Hoffman orphanage, was operated upon Friday evening for the removal of his appendix.

Admissions over the week-end included Richard Redding, Gettysburg, R. 5; Mrs. Bernard Redding, Jr., Gettysburg, R. 2; Mrs. Paul Kimpfle, Orrtanna; Mrs. Manuel Kolb and infant son, Thomas Vincent, Thurmont; Mrs. Earl J. Hickey, Wall street. Those discharged were J. Clair Ford, Fairfield; Harry J. Irvin, Littlestown, and Mrs. J. Lawrence Orendorf, Emmitsburg.

James Crum, Melvin Warren, Richard Warren and Clyde Sell left for a hunting camp near Cross Forks on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Beecher, Altoona, have been spending a few days with Mrs. William Lady and other relatives in town.

Miss Grace Boyer, Harrisburg, spent the Thanksgiving Day recess at her home in Bridgeport.

Cameron Thomas joined Camp Eighteen on Big Flat on Sunday.

Miss Martha Raffensperger, Harrisburg, spent the Thanksgiving Day vacation with her mother, Mrs. Elsie Raffensperger.

Blaze In Attic Causes $150 Loss

Damage estimated at about $150 resulted Saturday evening when fire broke out in the attic of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy LeVan, less than a half mile south of town along the Littlestown highway. Gettysburg firemen were called about 6:40 o'clock and brought the flames under control with the use of chemicals and water from a booster tank.

Defective wiring in a bedroom partition is said to have caused the fire. The flames burned through the attic floor. There was some damage by water to two bedroom ceilings.

5TH RAID TEST IS SATISFACTORY

and traffic is more congested than at most other times. The test lasted a half hour.

Reports from all sections of the county indicated that the signals went through promptly and that the public in general cooperated very well, according to information gathered at the county control center in the court house basement where Judge W. C. Sheely, chairman of the county council of defense, and other members of the county staff were on duty.

There were "one or two reports of violations" and these are being investigated, it was stated. There were instances in which lights were left burning and some reports of infractions of traffic regulations. All are being checked carefully.

LeRoy H. Winebrenner, chairman of the borough council of defense, said cooperation on the part of the public here was "fine." Central town air raid shelters and store-rooms provided ample space for the crowds that were on the streets a few minutes before the alarm sounded. Many got "tips" of the approaching test as the "yellow" and "blue" calls came through so that much of the congestion had disappeared before the audible alarm was sounded.

Mr. Winebrenner said there was some difficulty with double parking in center square. Double parking is illegal during a blackout and wardens will be instructed in the future not to permit double parking in the square or elsewhere but to direct motorists to continue to the nearest available proper parking place.

Local results of the Saturday night test will be reviewed at a meeting of the Gettysburg borough council of defense to be held Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Legion building. Secor wardens also will be asked to attend.

Weddings

Snyder—Wolffinger

Miss Mary Louise Wolffinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Z. Wolffinger, Waynesboro, became the bride of Technician S. Dick Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Snyder of York, Friday afternoon, November 27, at three o'clock, in the Union Evangelical Lutheran church at York, when the Rev. Parker B. Wagnild of Gettysburg, a friend of the bridal couple performed the single ring ceremony in the presence of a few close friends and members of the immediate families. The Rev. Carl R. Simon assisted in the ceremony.

Mrs. Snyder is a graduate of Waynesboro high school and Gettysburg college, and at the present is a student in the Yale School of Nursing at New Haven, Connecticut. She is a member of Delta Gamma sorority.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Gettysburg college with the class of 1941 and a member of Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity. He is now stationed with the United States Army at Camp Gordon, Georgia.

The Gettysburg Times was informed today by Corporal John Edward Carter, Camp Croft, South Carolina, of his marriage July 26 to Miss Eleanor Ray Moore of Spartansburg, South Carolina.

The ceremony was performed in Spartansburg by the Rev. H. A. Davis, Corporal and Mrs. Carter are residing in Spartansburg.

Meanwhile, the Navy in Washington disclosed that despite violent attacks by American bombers, the Japanese were attempting to regain a foothold on the bleak little island of Attu, in the westernmost Aleutians.

Attu lies 160 miles west of the only other Japanese base in the Aleutians at Kiska, which has been rendered virtually useless by American aerial assault.

The Navy said Flying Fortress planes set fire to a Japanese cargo ship off Attu on Thanksgiving Day and U. S. fighters strafed enemy anti-aircraft installations on the island.

On Guadalcanal island, in the Solomons, the Navy reported only minor patrol activity.

Holy Cross Startles Football World By 55-12 Rout Of Boston College

CHAMPION OF PACIFIC LOOP NOT DECIDED

New York, Nov. 30 (AP)—The dizziest football season of them all, complicated by the uncertainties of war, had all-but run its course today, leaving coaches, players and fans convinced that the definition of armed conflict by a fellow named Sherman was a masterpiece of understatement.

Although there still are a few odds and ends to be picked up elsewhere, the remainder of the country saw the screw campaign stagger to what amounted to a finish Saturday and unload what surprises it had left on an unsuspecting public. Holy Cross, a 4 to 1 underdog, crushed Boston College's previously unbeaten Eagles, 55-12. Navy pinned a 14-0 defeat on an Army team that was favored at 3 to 1. And Georgia, humbled by Auburn the week before, bounced back to ruin Georgia Tech's spotless record, 34-0.

Conference Champions
All told, the day's activities added to the lineup of conference champions until now it looks like this:
Western—Ohio State
Ivy League—Pennsylvania
Southeastern—Georgia
Big Three—Yale
Southwest—Texas
Big Six—Missouri
Southern—William and Mary
Missouri Valley—Tulsa
Big Seven—Utah and Colorado
(tie)
Pacific Coast—Still undecided.

On Pacific Coast
Washington State lost a chance to clinch a tie for the Pacific Coast crown by playing a scoreless deadlock with Washington Saturday, leaving UCLA on the inside track with four victories and one defeat. Southern California, which still has a chance for a title tie, plays Montana this week and UCLA meets Idaho in conference play. Then USC collides with the Uclans December 12 in what looms as the deciding game.

The Pacific Coast champ, when selected, will go into the Rose Bowl, January 1, against Georgia, which was invited soon after its Saturday victory, clinching the Southeastern conference title.

Tennessee closed its season with a 19-7 triumph over Vanderbilt and was named to play in the Sugar Bowl against Tulsa, Missouri Valley champion and only major team with an all-victorious record.

With the Southwest conference title tucked away, Texas has qualified for the Cotton Bowl and Georgia Tech has been invited as the other team. Both are expected to make their decisions today.

Irish Beat USC
Ohio State, the Big Ten champion, finished with a convincing 41-12 victory over Iowa Pre-Flight, which still has a game with Missouri this week. Michigan closed the Big Ten campaign by stopping Iowa, 23-14. Notre Dame blanked Southern California, 19-0, and ties into Great Lakes Naval this week.

Other games Saturday send William and Mary's Southern conference champions to Oklahoma, which finished second in the Big Six when Nebraska was upset by Kansas State, 19-0, and San Francisco to Mississippi State. St. Mary's Pre-Flight, whipped by Stanford, 28-13, tackles California Sunday.

Bowl Battles
The picture for the January 1 bowl games looked like this today (won-lost-tied records in parentheses):
Rose Bowl at Pasadena—Georgia (10-1-0) vs. Pacific Coast champion.

Sugar Bowl at New Orleans—Tulsa (10-0-0) vs. Tennessee (8-1-1).
Cotton Bowl at Dallas—Texas (8-2-0) vs. Georgia Tech (9-1-0).

Orange Bowl at Miami—Boston College (8-1-0) vs. Alabama (7-3-0).
Corn Bowl at Chicago—Holy Cross (5-4-1) vs. unnamed opponent.

Sun Bowl at El Paso, Texas—No teams selected.

Boston College, headed for the Sugar Bowl until the Holy Cross thing happened, was reported invited to the Orange Bowl along with Alabama, but there was nothing official about either bid.

The Corn Bowl, scheduled for Chicago's Soldier field under the sponsorship of the Catholic Youth organization, joined the list of post-season games yesterday with the initial invitation to Holy Cross.

RAILROAD TO PAY

Philadelphia, Nov. 30 (AP)—The Pennsylvania railroad announced today that it will pay Dec. 1 maturities in the amount of $3,093,000 of Pennsylvania company 3½ per cent guaranteed trust certificates and a $128,000 annual installment of Pennsylvania railroad series "G" 2½ per cent equipment trust certificates.

F. And M. Will Play 10 Cage Contests

Lancaster, Pa., Nov. 30—Franklin and Marshall college will open the basketball season on December 10 when Juniata college appears on the home floor. The complete schedule announced today by Prof. Charles W. Mays, director of athletics, consists of ten games. Tom Floyd, former freshman cage coach, will take over the varsity as successor to John Shober Barr who became Director of Admissions and Dean of Freshmen at the opening of the present academic year. All home games will be played in the Biecker gymnasium on the campus.

The schedule follows:
December 10, Juniata, here; January 9, Dickinson, here; January 12, Albright, here; February 3, Lebanon Valley, away; February 6, Muhlenberg away; February 13, Albright, away; February 17, Gettysburg, here; February 25, Lebanon Valley, here; March 3, Muhlenberg, here; March 10, Gettysburg, away.

Harold James Mackin, Jr., of Upper Darby will captain the team.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, Nov. 30 (AP)—Look for a tremendous turnover in football coaching before next season (if there is a next season). . . . The news that Dick Harlow of Harvard and Jack Hagerty of Georgetown had joined the Navy gave a hint of what you can expect. Dartmouth's Tuss McLaughry and Syracuse's Ocie Solem both are looking for commissions and plenty of others will pursue the same search now that the season is virtually over. . . . One sure thing, the Army and Navy doctors won't have to worry about weak hearts in any of the coaches who got through this season. After scanning the latest bunch of scores, we'd hardly be surprised to see the Redskins lick the Bears 73-0 in the pro playoff.

Answering Hank Wolfe's query as to whether Ray Marshall's 102-yard touchdown run for John Marshall high of Richmond was the season's longest in high school circles, a reader sends a clipping from the Jacksonville (Fla.) Times Union in which Bobby Hague of Fletcher high at Jacksonville Beach is credited with a 105-yard run from scrimmage. . . . What kind of a field do they play on there, anyway? . . . Doesn't matter, though, because Wolfe sends further word that movies proved Marshall of Marshall actually ran 110 yards, intercepting a pass right on the end line. We're sure that can't be beaten.

MONDAY MATINEE
The Yankees donated to the armed forces 176 dozen (2,112) baseballs that were thrown back from the stands during the past baseball season. . . . Nat Fleisher, who hit the jackpot with his book on Jim Corbett, "Gentleman Jim," will be out with his 40th book within a few days. It's about Commando and Ranger fighting. . . . And George Barton has authored a piece for Esquire about Mike Kelley—who is too big a subject for one article. . . . Columbia's Paul Gervall would listen to pro football offers if the Marines give him time. . . . White Plains, N. Y., won't stage its usual fight card this week because of an antique show at the Westchester county center. You can make your own gag about antique shows in various other fight clubs.

SERVICE DEPT.
When Pvt. Honey Melody, boxing coach at Port Sheridan, Ill., thought he had spotted a promising light heavyweight prospect recently, the guy turned out to be Sgt. Charles Tolday, former National AAU champion, who "hoped" he wouldn't be too busy to try out for the team. . . . Lieut. Nathan B. Eubank of the South Plains Army flying school at Lubbock, Tex., had only two weeks to get together a football team to play the Lubbock Army flying school team. He thought he had done pretty well when his team only lost 20-0. Then nearly all his players, including Bob Gude, former Vanderbilt center, were transferred to a new field. The lieutenant says he'll concentrate on basketball from now on.

HOT COFFEYVILLE
The Coffeyville (Kas.) junior college football team has just won the Kansas state junior college football championship for the third consecutive year and has a winning streak of 26 straight games. . . . No wonder we have coffee rationing.

The density of population in New York city's lower East Side has declined by more than 50 per cent since 1905.

BREAM NAMES ALL-FOE TEAM

Four players each from Bucknell and the University of Delaware dominated the all-opponent team selected by Coach "Hen" Bream of Gettysburg college on the basis of performances against the Battlefields.

The center position was the only line post that Coach Bream did not select a player from Bucknell, or Delaware. This went to Mike Phillips of Western Maryland. The guards picked were Bogovich of the Blue Hens and Anderson of the Bisons. For the tackles, the Bullet mentor's choices were Scot of Bucknell and Furman of Delaware. At the wing posts Bream selected Matthews of Bucknell and Barlow of Delaware.

In summing up the line choices, Bream added that Bogovich, guard on the unbeaten Blue Hen team was the best lineman that he had seen all year.

There was a wealth of good backs that faced the Bullets, but the outstanding ones were Bossick of Muhlenberg, Rehner of Dickinson, Johnson from Bucknell and Hart from Delaware. The outstanding back faced by the Bullets this year according to the coach was Bossick of the Mules on the basis of his kicking, running and passing ability.

In addition to the players named, Bream listed several more who were deserving of honorable mention. This group included Doty and Dittman, centers from Franklin and Marshall and Dickinson respectively; Paar, halfback from Bucknell; Gorgone and Coody, fullbacks from Muhlenberg and Delaware, and Shaffmeister, towering freshman end from Dickinson.

SPORT SHORTS

Hollywood, Nov. 30 (AP)—A national record of 21 scoring passes for the season was claimed today by Quarterback Jackie Fellows of Fresno State college, two of which he flipped yesterday in sparking his Bulldog teammates to a 27 to 6 victory over Loyola of Los Angeles in the final 1942 game for each team.

Philadelphia, Nov. 30 (AP)—Fines collected from offending players during the season financed a party for members of the Philadelphia Eagles last night after they ended their National Football league season. End Larry Cabrelli, Tackle Vic Sears and Quarterback Tommy Thompson, selected by the squad as the most valuable players, received "gifts" from Owner Alexis Thompson.

Philadelphia, Nov. 30 (AP)—Swimmers competing in an aquatic carnival at the Central YMCA Saturday will not have to pay cash entry fees—but will be required to buy war stamps to enter each event. Bill Schmidt of the New York YMCA is expected to defend the Richard E. Ayres trophy in the 50-yard breaststroke.

Harrisburg, Nov. 30 (AP)—Pennsylvania hunters, taking the field today at the start of the 12-day deer season, were asked by the game commission to turn in hides of their trophies to be made into gloves, vests and hoods for the armed forces and merchant marine. Commission President Ross Leffler predicted the kill might total 25,000 bucks if the weather is favorable. Last year, under comparatively poor conditions, 19,271 deer were slain.

M'Govern Continues To Lead Grid Scorers

New York, Nov. 30 (AP)—Although both Bob Steuber of Missouri and Gene Fekete of Ohio State increased their scoring totals in last week's games, neither did it with enough fervor to threaten the leadership of Eddie McGovern of Rose Poly, whose team completed its schedule two weeks ago.

Steuber remains in third place with 114 points to 165 for McGovern and has another chance this Saturday. With the Iowa Pre-Flight team furnishing the opposition, however, it is unlikely that the Missouri halfback will wipe out the 51-point difference.

James Secrest of Rochester, Rochester halfback who also has been idle the past two weeks, retains second place with 133 tallies and Frank Simkwich of Georgia is fourth with 96. A touchdown and five conversions against the Iowa Seahawks Saturday, lifted Fekete to an aggregate of 92.

In the first seven months of 1942, 200,000 more tons of steel plates were produced in the U. S. than in all of 1941.

SCHOOLBOY GRID CHAMPIONSHIP TILT SATURDAY

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 30 (AP)—Scranton Central high school's football team, champions of the Northern division of the Eastern conference, enjoyed a vacation from practice today but will resume drills tomorrow in preparation for the play-off game Saturday against Shenandoah, Southern division champs.

Central won the Northern division title Saturday by rallying to defeat their backyard rivals, Scranton Tech, 7-6 in a game postponed from Thanksgiving.

Holy Cross Startles Football World By 55-12 Rout Of Boston College

CHAMPION OF PACIFIC LOOP NOT DECIDED

New York, Nov. 30 (AP)—The dizziest football season of them all, complicated by the uncertainties of war, had all but run its course today, leaving coaches, players and fans convinced that the definition of armed conflict by a fellow named Sherman was a masterpiece of understatement.

Although there still are a few odds and ends to be picked up elsewhere, the remainder of the country saw the screw campaign stagger to what amounted to a finish Saturday and unload what surprises it had left on an unsuspecting public.

Holy Cross, a 4 to 1 underdog, crushed Boston College's previously unbeaten Eagles, 55-12. Navy pinned a 14-0 defeat on an Army team that was favored at 3 to 1. And Georgia, humbled by Auburn the week before, bounced back to ruin Georgia Tech's spotless record, 34-0.

Conference Champions
All told, the day's activities added to the lineup of conference champions until now it looks like this:

Western—Ohio State
Ivy League—Pennsylvania
Southeastern—Georgia
Big Three—Yale
Southwest—Texas
Big Six—Missouri
Southern—William and Mary
Missouri Valley—Tulsa
Big Seven—Utah and Colorado
(tie)
Pacific Coast—Still undecided.
On Pacific Coast

Washington State lost a chance to clinch a tie for the Pacific Coast crown by playing a scoreless deadlock with Washington Saturday, leaving UCLA on the inside track with four victories and one defeat. Southern California, which still has a chance for a title tie, plays Montana this week and UCLA meets Idaho in conference play. Then USC collides with the Uclans December 12 in what looms as the deciding game.

The Pacific Coast champ, when selected, will go into the Rose Bowl, January 1, against Georgia, which was invited soon after its Saturday victory, clinching the Southeastern conference title.

Tennessee closed its season with a 19-7 triumph over Vanderbilt and was named to play in the Sugar Bowl against Tulsa, Missouri Valley champion and only major team with an all-victorious record.

With the Southwest conference title tucked away, Texas has qualified for the Cotton Bowl and Georgia Tech has been invited as the other team. Both are expected to make their decisions today.

In Saturday's Southwest conference games, Rice blanked Baylor, 20-0, and Texas Christian whipped Southern Methodist, 14-6. The loop will close its season with SMU playing Rice Saturday, although Texas A and M has an intercollegiate date with Washington State the same day.

Irish Beat USC
Ohio State, the Big Ten champion, finished with a convincing 41-12 victory over Iowa Pre-Flight, which still has a game with Missouri this week. Michigan closed the Big Ten campaign by stopping Iowa, 28-14. Notre Dame blanked Southern California, 13-0, and ties into Great Lakes Naval this week.

Other games Saturday send William and Mary's Southern conference champions to Oklahoma, which finished second in the Big Six when Nebraska was upset by Kansas State, 19-0, and San Francisco to Mississippi State. St. Mary's Pre-Flight, whipped by Stanford, 28-13, tackles California Sunday.

Bowl Battles
The picture for the January 1 bowl games looked like this today (won-lost-tied records in parentheses):

Rose Bowl at Pasadena—Georgia (10-1-0) vs. Pacific Coast champion.

Sugar Bowl at New Orleans—Tulsa (10-0-0) vs. Tennessee (8-1-1).

Cotton Bowl at Dallas—Texas (8-2-0) vs. Georgia Tech (9-1-0).

Orange Bowl at Miami—Boston college (8-1-0) vs. Alabama (7-3-0).

Corn Bowl at Chicago—Holy Cross (5-4-1) vs. unnamed opponent.

Sun Bowl at El Paso, Texas—No teams selected.

Boston college, headed for the Sugar Bowl until the Holy Cross thing happened, was reported invited to the Orange Bowl along with Alabama, but there was nothing official about either bid.

The Corn Bowl, scheduled for Chicago's Soldier field under the sponsorship of the Catholic Youth organization, joined the list of post-season games yesterday with the initial invitation to Holy Cross.

RAILROAD TO PAY

Philadelphia, Nov. 30 (AP)—The Pennsylvania railroad announced today that it will pay Dec. 1 maturities in the amount of $3,093,000 of Pennsylvania company 3½ per cent guaranteed-trust certificates and a $1,228,000 annual installment of Pennsylvania railroad series "G" 2½ per cent equipment trust certificates.

F. And M. Will Play 10 Cage Contests

Lancaster, Pa., Nov. 30—Franklin and Marshall college will open the basketball season on December 10 when Juniata college appears on the home floor. The complete schedule announced today by Prof. Charles W. Mayser, director of athletics, consists of ten games. Tom Floyd, former freshman cage coach, will take over the varsity as successor to John Shober Barr who became Director of Admissions and Dean of Freshmen at the opening of the present academic year. All home games will be played in the Bleeker gymnasium on the campus.

The schedule follows:
December 10, Juniata, here; January 9, Dickinson, here; January 12, Albright, here; February 3, Lebanon Valley, away; February 6, Muhlenberg away; February 13, Albright, away; February 17, Gettysburg, here; February 25, Lebanon Valley, here; March 3, Muhlenberg, here; March 10, Gettysburg, away.
Harold James Mackin, Jr., of Upper Darby will captain the team.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Nov. 30 (AP)—Look for a tremendous turnover in football coaching before next season (if there is a next season). . . . The news that Dick Harlow of Harvard and Jack Hagerty of Georgetown had joined the Navy gave a hint of what you can expect. Dartmouth's Tuss McLaughry and Syracuse's Ossie Solem both are looking for commissions and plenty of others will pursue the same search now that the season is virtually over. . . . One sure thing, the Army and Navy doctors won't have to worry about weak hearts in any of the coaches who got through this season. . . . After scanning the latest bunch of scores, we'd hardly be surprised to see the Redskins lick the Bears 73-0 in the pro playoff.

Answering Hank Wolfe's query as to whether Ray Marshall's 102-yard touchdown run for John Marshall high of Richmond was the season's longest in high school circles, a reader sends a clipping from the Jacksonville (Fla.) Times Union in which Bobby Hague of Fletcher high at Jacksonville Beach is credited with a 105-yard run from scrimmage. . . . What kind of a field do they play on there, anyway? . . . Doesn't matter, though, because Wolfe sends further word that movies proved Marshall of Marshall actually ran 110 yards, intercepting a pass right on the end line. We're sure that can't be beaten.

MONDAY MATINEE

The Yankees donated to the armed forces 176 dozen (2,112) baseballs that were thrown back from the stands during the past baseball season. . . . Nat Fleisher, who hit the jackpot with his book on Jim Corbett, "Gentleman Jim," will be out with his 40th book within a few days. It's about Commando and Ranger fighting. . . . And George Barton has authored a piece for Esquire about Mike Kelley—who is too big a subject for one article. Columbia's Paul Gervardi would listen to pro football offers if the Marines give him time. . . . White Plains, N. Y., won't stage its usual fight card this week because of an antique show at the Westchester county center. You can make your own gag about antique shows in various other fight clubs.

When Pvt. Honey Melody, boxing coach at Fort Sheridan, Ill., thought he had spotted a promising light heavyweight prospect recently, the guy turned out to be Sgt. Charles Tobday, former National AAU champion, who "hoped" he wouldn't be too busy to try out for the team. . . . Lieut. Nathan B. Eubank of the South Plains Army flying school at Lubbock, Tex., had only two weeks to get together a football team to play the Lubbock Army flying school team. He thought he had done pretty well when his team only lost 20-0. Then nearly all his players, including Bob Gude, former Vanderbilt center, were transferred to a new field. The lieutenant says he'll concentrate on basketball from now on.

HOT COFFEYVILLE

The Coffeyville (Kas.) junior college football team has just won the Kansas state junior college football championship for the third consecutive year and has a winning streak of 26 straight games. . . . No wonder we have coffee rationing.

The density of population in New York city's lower East Side has declined by more than 50 per cent since 1905.

BREAM NAMES ALL-FOE TEAM

Four players each from Bucknell and the University of Delaware dominated the all-opponent team selected by Coach "Hen" Bream of Gettysburg college on the basis of performances against the Battlefields.

The center position was the only line post that Coach Bream did not select a player from Bucknell or Delaware. This went to Mike Phillips of Western Maryland. The guards picked were Bogovich of the Blue Hens and Anderson of the Bisons. For the tackles, the Bullet mentor's choices were Spot of Bucknell and Furman of Delaware. At the wing posts Bream selected Matthews of Bucknell and Barlow of Delaware.

In summing up the line choices, Bream added that Bogovich, guard on the unbeaten Blue Hen team was the best lineman that he had seen all year.

There was a wealth of good backs that faced the Bullets, but the outstanding ones were Bossick of Muhlenberg, Rehner of Dickinson, Johnson from Bucknell and Hart from Delaware. The outstanding back faced by the Bullets this year according to the coach was Bossick of the Mules on the basis of his kicking, running and passing ability.

In addition to the players named, Bream listed several more who were deserving of honorable mention. This group included Doty and Dittman, centers from Franklin and Marshall and Dickinson respectively; Paas, halfback from Bucknell; Gorgone and Coady, fullbacks from Muhlenberg and Delaware, and Shaffmeister, towering freshman end from Dickinson.

SPORT SHORTS

Hollywood, Nov. 30 (AP)—A national record of 21 scoring passes for the season was claimed today by Quarterback Jackie Fellows of Fresno State college, two of which he flipped yesterday in sparking his Bulldog teammates to a 27 to 6 victory over Loyola of Los Angeles in the final 1942 game for each team.

Philadelphia, Nov. 30 (AP)—Fines collected from offending players during the season financed a party for members of the Philadelphia Eagles last night after they ended their National Football league season. End Larry Cabrelli, Tackle Vic Sears and Quarterback Tommy Thompson, selected by the squad as the most valuable players, received gifts from Owner Alexis Thompson.

Philadelphia, Nov. 30 (AP)—Swimmers competing in an aquatic carnival at the Central YMCA Saturday will not have to pay cash entry fees—but will be required to buy war stamps to enter each event. Bill Schmidt of the New York YMCA is expected to defend the Richard E. Ayres trophy in the 50-yard breaststroke.

Harrisburg, Nov. 30 (AP)—Pennsylvania hunters, taking the field today at the start of the 12-day deer season, were asked by the game commission to turn in hides of their trophies to be made into gloves, vests and hoods for the armed forces and merchant marine. Commission President Ross Leffler predicted the kill might total 25,000 bucks if the weather is favorable. Last year, under comparatively poor conditions, 19,271 deer were slain.

M'Govern Continues To Lead Grid Scorers

New York, Nov. 30 (AP)—Although both Bob Steuber of Missouri and Gene Fekete of Ohio State, increased their scoring totals in last week's games, neither did it with enough fervor to threaten the leadership of Eddie McGovern of Rose Poly, whose team completed its schedule two weeks ago.

Steuber remains in third place with 114 points to 165 for McGovern and has another chance this Saturday. With the Iowa Pre-Flight team furnishing the opposition, however, it is unlikely that the Missouri half-back will wipe out the 51-point difference.

James Secrest of Rochester, Rochester halfback who also has been idle the past two weeks, retains second place with 133 tallies and Frank Sinkwich of Georgia is fourth with 96. A touchdown and five conversions against the Iowa Seahawks Saturday, lifted Fekete to an aggregate of 92.

In the first seven months of 1942, 300,000 more tons of steel plates were produced in the U. S. than in all of 1941.

SCHOOLBOY GRID CHAMPIONSHIP TILT SATURDAY

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 30 (AP)—Scranton Central high school's football team, champions of the Northern division of the Eastern conference, enjoyed a vacation from practice today but will resume drills tomorrow in preparation for the play-off game Saturday against Shenandoah, Southern division champs.

Central won the Northern division title Saturday by rallying to defeat their backyard rivals, Scranton Tech, 7-6 in a game postponed from Thanksgiving.

All other major scholastic championships in the state have been determined. New Castle holds the WPIAL class AA crown, Bethlehem the Big 15 title, and Tyrone the Western conference honors.

At the Eastern conference meeting in Hazleton Saturday, Frank A. Thornton of Coal township was re-elected president and James Gatto, of Dunmore, secretary-treasurer. A proposal to limit membership in each division to 19 teams was tabled.

Housewives Are Leading Fight On Salvage "Front"

Harrisburg, Nov. 30 (AP)—Pennsylvania's kitchen brigade—an apron for a uniform—is leading the fight on the salvage front.

en sweeper and even her metal compact," asserted Baker.

"We have asked her to keep a sharp lookout for junk which may have accumulated in the cellar or attic. Grease drippings were needed to make ammunition and we turned the problem over to the housewife. The tin can collection drive was expanded and again we called on the housewife for help."

"And now we are asking her to contribute her silk and nylon stockings."

Baker added that "everyone is doing a good salvage job," but it is the women in the home who make saving to win the war a daily habit.

SATURDAY TEST FILLS SHELTERS

Philadelphia, Nov. 30 (AP)—Air-raid shelters, scorned by many Pennsylvanians in previous test alerts, will be better appreciated the next time the sirens shriek.

Thousands of city residents, caught on the streets Saturday night in a surprise state-wide blackout from 9:30 to 10:20, discovered the shelters are just what the name implies when the weather is unpleasant, although they are primarily for the protection of civilians from enemy attack. For the first time since air raid drills began, the city's many public shelters were comfortably filled, some to the point of actual crowding.

At least five deaths were reported during the test. Four were in Philadelphia, including two wardens who succumbed to heart attacks while on duty. They were George Rosenberg, 49, and Harry Lex, 41.

The new state control center at Harrisburg was in use for the first time, but it did not prevent a mix-up that left Birdsboro, Berks county, in the dark for an hour and 15 minutes. Officials said an error in transmission of the all-clear signal from Reading was responsible.

Canadian rivers are estimated to have one-fourth of all the potential hydroelectric power in the world.

Reports from all sections of the county indicated that the signal went through promptly and that the public in general cooperated very well, according to information gathered at the county control center in the court house basement where Judge W. C. Sheely, chairman of the county council of defense and other members of the county staff were on duty.

There were "one or two reports of violations" and these are being investigated, it was stated. There were instances in which lights were left burning and some reports of infractions of traffic regulations. All are being checked carefully.

LeRoy H. Winebrenner, chairman of the borough council of defense, said cooperation on the part of the public here was "fine." Central town air raid shelters and storage rooms provided ample space for the crowds that were on the streets.

few minutes before the alarm sounded. Many got "tips" of the approaching test as the "yellow" and "blue" calls came through so that much of the congestion had disappeared before the audibility alarm was sounded.

Mr. Winebrenner said there was some difficulty with double parking in center square. Double parking is illegal during a blackout and wardens will be instructed in the future not to permit double parking in the square or elsewhere but to direct motorists to continue to the nearest available proper parking place.

Local results of the Saturday night test will be reviewed at a meeting of the Gettysburg borough council of defense to be held Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Legion building. Secor wardens also will be asked to attend.

BOOBY TRAPS

To dead men's hands the strings are tied

Which burst the shattering green
nade

And thus are lured, from mercy's side,

The brave who dare to offer aid.
This trick is called a "booby trap."

A method practised by the Jap.

A flag of truce is sent ahead.

A signal all will be secure.
Now blood has stained its surface
red.

And left it just another lure;
Another snare, "Excuse me, please!"
Indulged in by the Japanese.

Well, once the booby trap is sprung,
And once the flag of truce is stained,
And once believed the lying tongue
Respect can never be regained.
Far down the years the wily Japs
Will long regret their booby traps.

Today's Talk

By George Matthew Adams

THE MIRROR OF THE MIND

I wonder if we think enough about the fact that the Mind is really a Mirror. From it is reflected all that we see and look upon. It also reflects all that we hold in that Mind and which has given to it substance and character.

I read a book today by a very dear and valued friend—and it reflected him as does a Mirror everything that is held before it. Books touch the imagination and of themselves reflect much that the authors meant to say—and often far more.

There are Minds that even reflect long years ahead. Woodrow Wilson was such a Mind. In time, people all over this war-ridden world will look upon those reflections as almost divine prophecy. It has always taken the world a long time to get caught up with its great men and women.

George Bernard Shaw once said:
"England does not deserve its great men." In time, however, England comes to appreciate them and to appraise them at their worth. Few men of their time have been so magnified as was Abraham Lincoln.
Even his Gettysburg speech was looked upon at the time as insignificant—and by many as unworthy of a man at the head of a great nation in time of its most serious and tragic hour. Yet that speech has become a Mirror to the soul of Lincoln himself.

We cannot face a single human being without reflecting something of what we are. Also we reflect the influence of thousands of other Minds and of all that has, at one time or other, touched our consciousness. In ourselves we are sensitive Mirrors. Nothing can touch our conscious area without being somehow absorbed, and in turn reflected.

In that wonderful bronze statue of Lincoln now in Lyle Park in Cincinnati, which the late George Gray Bernard created, I see the actual man he meant to portray. I also see the sculptor himself.

We see ourselves reflected in others, but also we see them reflected in us. It is this that does so much to make all the world of ours akin to us. Spiritually, we are as one family. God grant, at the end of this tragic war, that we may be united—one and inseparable—and forever!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Ghost of Fear."

Bank of Gettysburg: The annual election of Directors of this Institution took place on Monday last. The following gentlemen were chosen: Robert Smith, George Himes, David Newman, Jacob Wortz, William McClellan, Henry Spalding, Jacob Wirt, William Gardner, Joshua Motter, John M. Kaleb, Dr. William R. Stewart, Jas. McSherry, Jr. and Philip Nunamacker.

Married: On the 3rd inst., by the Rev. Mr. Albert, Mr. John Reck, to Miss Maria Blocher, both of Mount-pleasant township.

On the 8th inst., by the same, Samuel Weikert, to Miss Lydia Schowalter—both of Mountpleasant township.

On Tuesday last, by the same, Mr. Jeremiah Kohler, of Conewago township, to Miss Sarah Albright, daughter of William Albright, Esq., of McSherrytown.

On the 17th inst., by the Rev. C. W. Shaeffer, Henry Chritzman, Jr., of this borough, to Miss Mary Ann Weitzel, of Harrisburg.

Gettysburg and Petersburg Turnpike company: The following gentlemen were chosen officers of the company at the election held on the 14th instant:

President—George Smyser.
Managers—James McSherry, John B. McPherson, John H. McClellan, O. W. Eichelberger, Samuel McClellan, George Himes.
Treasurer—John B. McPherson.

Thanksgiving: The Governor of Maryland has recommended the 14th day of December, to be observed in that state, as a day of public "thanksgiving, praise and prayer to the Almighty, because of the manifold blessings enjoyed by them, under Divine protection." Our Pennsylvania Governors never do these things—forgetting that gratitude is due to God for His goodness.

Important From England: "The Prince of Wales has been weaned, and the papers solemnly recorded, bears the deprivation with the best grace in the world."

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
The Rev. I. C. Billheimer, late of the Theological Seminary of this place, has accepted a call from the Lutheran congregation in Watson-town, Northumberland county.

Married: Bupp—Riddiemoer—On the 13th inst., in Hanover, by Jesse Frytlinger, Esq., William Bupp, of Baltimore, to Mary Riddiemoer, of this county.

Jordy—Brashears: On Thursday, 21st inst., by the Rev. Dr. Hauer, George H. Jordy, M.D., and Miss Virginia Brashears, both of Abbottstown.

Parker—Butler: On the 7th inst., by the Rev. A. J. Bender, Mrs. Charles H. Parker to Miss Sarah C. Butler, all of Menallen township.

Shaffer—Stokes: On the 31st ult., in Chambersburg, at the residence of P. Hamman, Esq., by the Rev. H. Y. Hummelbaugh, Mr. Charles Shaffer, of York Springs, Adams county, to Miss Sarah A. Stoke, of Chambersburg.

Stratton—Gilbert: In Lutheran Trinity church, Washington, on the 22nd ult., by the Rev. Ernest M. Burger, Eugene C. Stratton, of Boston, Massachusetts, to Miss Beekie Gilbert, of Gettysburg.

Property Sales: James Wilson has sold his house and lot of ground, with shop, on West Middle street, Gettysburg, to Henry Felty for $1,350.

Joseph Mannock has purchased from the Administrator of Dr. Eckert, the house and lot on the corner of East Middle and Stratton streets, in this place for $400 cash.

Law Firm: By card in today's paper it will be seen that D. McCaughy, Esq., has associated with him in the practice of law, John M. Krauth, Esq. The latter was admitted to the bar last week, after a very creditable examination.

General News: Two thousand men are said to be employed by A. T. Stewart in his New York stores.

Charles Dickens arrived in Boston Tuesday, on a lecturing tour in the United States.

The new bridge over the Susquehanna at Harrisburg, was opened to travel on the 11th inst.

The Union Pacific railroad has been completed for five hundred and twenty-five miles westward from Omaha, to the base of the Rocky mountains.

S. S. Convention: The Sunday School convention now being held in this place has been a perfect success, the attendance being large and exercises very interesting. On Monday evening the Rev. Dr. Hay opened the exercises and was followed by Jacob A. Gardner. The Rev. Alfred Taylor closed the exercises. On Tuesday morning Ex-Governor Pollock spoke eloquently on the advantages of an open Bible. In the evening the Rev. Dr. Willis delivered an eloquent address. A discussion of the question, "How to Retain the Older Scholars in Sabbath Schools?" was participated in by the Rev. S. Barnitz, Dr. Hay, J. A. Gardner, D. A. Buehler, Dr. Brown and Dr. Schmucker.

Busy War Workers Lack 'B' And 'C' Books At Pittsburgh

MANY DRIVERS FAIL TO ENROLL BEFORE DEADLINE

Pittsburgh, Nov. 30 (AP)—Western Pennsylvania motorists filled their gas tanks today as the midnight deadline for gasoline rationing approached with unsolved transportation problems for workers in this busy war production area.

Overworked ration boards labored over the week-end to issue supplementary books to war workers, but few reported success. Failure of as many as 35 per cent of the motorists in some sections to register on time for "A" books and thousands of applications for additional gasoline improperly filled out caused the bottleneck, they said.

An Office of Price Administration spokesman here also blamed motorists for the last-minute jam.

Sufficient Warning
"The public has had sufficient warning to file applications early and to make them out clearly and correctly," he asserted.

Gasoline dealers reported filling thousands of cans for motorists hoping to procure a supply sufficient "to tide them over." However, Pittsburgh's Public Safety Director George E. A. Fairley warned that storing of gasoline was forbidden and declared violators caught would be prosecuted.

City Councilman A. L. Wolk said overloaded transportation facilities may create danger and asked traffic officials to make a quick survey, declaring:

"We've got to guard against serious accidents. We're going to overtax our street cars and buses and we want to take the proper measures to safeguard lives."

May Stagger Hours

The Allegheny county war transportation committee said a survey indicated street cars and buses, now carrying almost capacity loads, will be overloaded by 10 to 15 per cent as a result of rationing. The committee will meet tomorrow with officials of street car, bus and railroad companies to discuss staggering of hours, especially for non-essential workers, as one means of solving the anticipated problems.

Virtually all motorists clung to the hope that the area would be taken out of district 1, where the weekly ration is three gallons. OPA officials in Washington promised to rule today on an appeal from a western Pennsylvania committee that the area be placed in district 2 where four gallons a week would be permitted.

Flashes of Life

STRANGE DOINGS

Philadelphia—Air raid wardens of Post 5, Sector 2, Zone 25 are wondering if some English Gremlins have crossed the Atlantic. Warden John F. Groetch hung an iron barrel hoop on a peg in post headquarters and discovered an hour later it was swinging like a pendulum. Other wardens found it still swinging the next day. Unable to produce any better explanation, somebody suggested the Gremlins, the make-believe little folk whom RAF pilots accuse when something goes wrong with their planes.

ADIEU FOR THE DURATION

Marshall, Mo.—The Daily Democrat, on gas rationing eve, carried this small notice in the lower left hand corner of the front page: "Notice—I want to thank all my customers and friends for their patronage during the time I was operating a filling station. Fred E. Moutis."

OUCH!

Kansas City — Duke Shoop, Washington newspaperman, wrote home telling about high food prices in the capital. A westerner, Shoop said, sat down in a restaurant, called a waiter and asked for a $3 dinner. "Yes, sir," the waiter replied. "Do you want that on white or rye?"

GATOR AGONIES

DEER SEASON OPENS; FIRST HUNTER DIES

Harrisburg, Nov. 30 (AP)—Pennsylvania's 12-day deer hunting season opened today with at least one accidental death already chalked up.

The victim was Wirt R. Shilling, 44, of Templeton, an Armstrong county constable, shot through the heart by a bullet from his own pistol in a hunting camp tragedy near Snow Shoe in Centre county.

Coroner Charles Shecker said Shilling was killed almost instantly when a .38 calibre dropped to the floor from his holster and exploded while Shilling was bending over a fire. He was accompanied by his 17-year-old son and a nephew, Clair Shilling, 24.

Defense workers made up a big part of the thousands of hunters who took to the field over the state in search of legal bucks.

The game commission said many war workers had reserved some or to her on the bus had a box in her lap from which low moans issued. When the seatmate noticed Mrs. Semrad's shudders, she reassured her: "Don't worry, it's must my alligator, he lives a very quiet life at home, and I think this bump ride displeases him. Or he may have gas on his stomach."

10 Fliers Die In Sioux City Crash

Sioux City, Ia., Nov. 30 (AP)—Ten men were killed today in the crash of an Army plane a half mile southwest of the Sioux City air base, the Post Public relations office announced.

Capt. Fred Shick, Post Public Relations officer, said all 10 men were dead when help reached the plane, which he said was on a routine flight.

A guard was placed around the area immediately and no civilians were permitted near the crash.

Capt. Shick said the names and ranks of those killed in the crash would not be released until their next of kin had been notified.

AWARDED MEDAL

Harrisburg, Nov. 30 (AP)—Dr. J. Horace McFarland, Harrisburg, past president of the American Rose society, has been awarded the Dean Hole Memorial medal, highest award of the National Rose society of England, for "great services in the interest of the rose."

Ross Leffler, president, predicted as many as 25,000 bucks might be bagged if snappy weather and tracking snow helps hunters. Last season, under comparatively poor conditions, 19,271 deer were taken.

Hunters legally may kill only bucks with at least two points on a prong. One buck is permitted an individual and six to a camp.

The sportsmen have been asked this year to help the war effort by donating hides for manufacture into gloves, vests and hoods, contributing empty shells to salvage collections, keeping an eye peeled for metal scrap lying in fields or woods and by conserving manpower through prevention of accidents.

THE MOST IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT EVER MADE BY THE U. S. TREASURY DEPARTMENT

The 9 Billion Dollar Victory Loan Drive Is On!

This week the United States Government begins the task of borrowing nine billion dollars from accumulated savings and idle funds in the next several weeks as an essential part of winning the war more quickly and more completely.

During these critical weeks you probably will be visited by a representative of one of the securities firms or banks which are contributing their time and effort—without compensation of any kind—to the Victory Fund Committee. He will explain to you, for instance, the benefits that you can obtain from the new Victory 2½'s—available for the first time. Welcome him as a war worker when he calls. If you miss him, ask your banker or securities dealer for full particulars. There is no limit to the amount that you can purchase.

Today many American families are torn apart. Millions have left their homes or their jobs; thousands have given their lives and many more are prepared to do so.

But the government, your government, is not asking you to give anything to this Nine Billion Dollar Drive. It is asking you to lend it all of the money you can possibly invest in what is the safest investment in the world—at a good rate of interest.

When the Victory Fund representative calls, please remember this: it is in your own interest, as well as that of your country, to listen to him—and to invest.

BUY THESE VICTORY 2½'S NOW

Twenty-six year 2½ per cent bonds due December 15, 1968, callable December 15, 1963. Issued in coupon or registered form at the option of the buyer. Commercial banks will not be permitted to hold these bonds until ten years after the date of issue. There is no limit on the amount any eligible investor may purchase. Interest is paid semi-annually, June 15 and Dec. 15. The bonds will be sold in denominations from $500 to $100,000. In the event of the death of a holder, the bonds may be redeemed at 100% and accrued interest for the purpose of satisfying federal estate taxes.

Two series of shorter term obligations: (a) 1½ per cent bonds due June 15, 1948, and (b) ½ per cent certificates of indebtedness due one year after issuance. These securities are open for subscription by banks, and also by all other classes of investors, whether private, corporate or institutional.

Other Treasury Securities offered to investors through the Victory Fund Committee are Treasury Tax Savings Notes A and C, and U. S. Savings Bonds, Series F and G.

ALLIES ARE

traffic along Marshal Rommel's road to escape towards Tripoli was strafed, while in Tunisia the fighting grew in intensity as the zero hour for the all-out land attack neared. From Vichy came a broadcast that British troops on the Tunisian-Algerian border had been reinforced by armored units, indicating that the all-out Allied attack upon the Naval base at Bizerte and Tunis, the capital of Tunisia, might soon be forthcoming.

This account from the Axis-controlled Vichy station said the Germans had captured a height in the Tunisian mountains, taken 110 prisoners and shot down several Allied bombers over Tunis. There was no confirmation of this enemy claim.

Two Axis Trains Hit
Comiso airdrome on Sicily, jumping off place for much of the supplies and reinforcements the Axis has been sending into Tunisia, again was the target of the RAF. Two waves of bombers struck there.

In Tunisia British air men pounced on two trains bearing enemy supplies and both were shot up effectively. A steamer was badly damaged off the coast.

The electric station and mole were hit and set afire in a Saturday night RAF raid on Tripoli and more direct hits were scored in daylight Sunday. One merchant ship in port and quays were left afire.

British Middle East headquarters said there was nothing to report on activities of Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's 8th Army, getting its second wind after chasing Rommel's Africa corps 800 miles across north Africa.

Bringing Up Reserves
The victorious British desert fighters presumably were bringing up fresh forces and supplies for an assault on the German and Italian remnants drawn up in the natural fortifications of the El Agheila defile.

BAD NEWS
The heavy rumble of early morning traffic—the shrill note of a policeman's whistle—the throaty shouts of newsmen rose from the street below. Rita opened her eyes slowly, luxuriously, and then closed them again. For a priceless moment she lived over again the brief, glorious hours she had spent with Clark. In these few brief hours that had come and gone with the speed of a bird winging through a summer sky, all the heartache and bitter taste of the past few months seemed to be suddenly compensated for—the sharpness dulled—the pain gently soothed away.

The urgent ringing of the telephone brought Rita abruptly back to a world of vivid realities. Lifting the instrument quickly from its cradle she heard a woman's clipped words.

"Miss Rita Ralston?" the voice said.

"This is the First National Bank. Mr. Cunningham's private secretary speaking."

Rita's heart leaped at the words. "Yes," she managed a little dryly.

"It's about your appointment today with Mr. Cunningham. He was called out of the city on business and instructed me to tell you that he was not able to get the directors to extend the time on the loan. He was sorry and—"

But that was all that Rita heard. Tears were choking her, she tried to control them—somehow she managed to say, "Goodbye," and drop the phone back in its cradle.

For a moment she sat rigid—motionless on the edge of the bed and then the tears came, hot, stinging tears that flooded down her lovely cheeks. She flung herself across the bed and shook with convulsive sobs. Slowly, gradually, her mind began to function again.

She reasoned with herself—she wasn't a child, and above all she wasn't a coward. She must go on some way. There must be some other solution. She would find a way out—she must, she must, so much depended on it.

Retreat
Again Rita picked up the telephone and asked the desk clerk to connect her with the Grand Central. There was a westbound train leaving in just two hours—if she hurried she could make it. Getting home now did not seem so imperative.

But she seemed to be driven by an inner urgency that bordered on frenzy. She must think before she talked with her father—think hard and work out some plan to offer him. Even the luncheon date with Clark could not keep her now.

She packed her few things hurriedly and took the elevator to the lobby floor. Stopping at a writing desk she dashed off a few brief words to Clark, paid her bill and left. She glanced at her wristwatch as she stepped into the warm sunlight that was flooding the street.

"It's time for Clark to be here now," she muttered to herself.

Just as Rita's cab was pulling away from the curb another cab eased to a stop behind. Clark Pasquin got out and with long, swinging strides entered the Hotel Cheltenham. Smiling at the pink-cheeked man behind the desk he said—

"Ring Miss Rita Ralston's room, please."

"Miss Ralston checked out not over two minutes ago," the clerk said reaching into the mailbox behind him. "Here's a note for Mr. Clark Pasquin; isn't that you?"

Clark nodded as a puzzled look crossed his face. He tore open the envelope and read the hurriedly written words:

"Thanks so much for everything—things have gone wrong for me—will explain later—believe me when I say knowing you has been something I shall never forget. Love, Rita."

Clark folded the note slowly and slipped it in his coat pocket. There was a strange light of concern in his blue eyes as he went from the lobby into the hotel lobby into the glare of the street.

His glance swept the line of cars drawn to the curb for a taxi when suddenly he saw a familiar face smiling at him from the rear of a limousine—a finer beckoned. Swinging open the door of the car he smiled at Gloria Cunningham.

"So nice seeing you again!" Gloria said with enthusiasm.

"Thanks," said Clark. "Was your party a big success?"

"Definitely," cooed Gloria.

The Lie
Nervously Clark glanced at his wristwatch. "Well I must be getting along. See you again, I hope." He turned to leave, but Gloria's words stopped him.

"Better join Rita and me for luncheon."

"I was to have had lunch with Miss Ralston but they just told me here that she checked out a few minutes ago," Clark said flatly.

"Checked out!" Gloria let her voice rise incredulously. "Why she couldn't have done that! Not to father! When he tried to help her!"

Clark was staring at her in sudden attention, puzzled concern growing in his face. "Will you explain

SUPPLY FLIERS FACE DANGERS

By MURLIN SPENCER

Somewhere in New Guinea, Nov. 28 (Delayed) (AP)—The Americans call it "The Bully Beef Express." But there's a note of respect when they use that name for, of all the fliers who ride the skies over embattled New Guinea, the pilots of "The Bully Beef Express" are among the most daring, the most "killed" and the hardest working.

Unarmed, except for the 45-caliber automatic which the pilots carry, and virtually cold meat for any enemy plane, these Douglas and Lockheed Army transports sweep in and out over enemy territory to land within a few miles of the Japanese lines to deliver their cargoes and pull away again.

I have seen them fly directly over a Japanese anti-aircraft gun position so low that the Japanese could not fire their anti-aircraft batteries but did blaze away with machine-guns.

Unshaven pilots will stand beside that plane?" he said quietly.

Gloria had a sparkle of triumph by bending forward to direct the chauffeur through the speaking tube. "The Waldorf." Then she turned back to Clark with distracted concern.

"I'll tell you what I know," she said, "at luncheon, I—I feel a little weak. I mean—I can't believe that an attractive girl like Rita would deliberately do it. I can't..."

"Do what?" Clark got into the car automatically, and it swung out into the traffic.

"Disappear—after my father asked her to explain what had been done with a large sum of money entrusted to her," Gloria said slowly.

traffic along Marshal Rommel's road to escape towards Tripoli was strafed, while in Tunisia the fighting grew in intensity as the zero hour for the all-out land attack neared. From Vichy came a broadcast that British troops on the Tunisian-Algerian border had been reinforced by armored units, indicating that the all-out Allied attack upon the Naval base at Bizerte and Tunis, the capital of Tunisia, might soon be forthcoming.

This account from the Axis-controlled Vichy station said the Germans had captured a height in the Tunisian mountains, taken 110 prisoners and shot down several Allied bombers over Tunis. There was no confirmation of this enemy claim.

Two Axis Trains Hit

Comiso airdrome on Sicily, jumping off place for much of the supplies and reinforcements the Axis has been sending into Tunisia, again was the target of the RAF. Two waves of bombers struck there.

In Tunisia British air men pounded on two trains bearing enemy supplies and both were shot up effectively. A steamer was badly damaged off the coast.

The electric station and moles were hit and set afire in a Saturday night RAF raid on Tripoli and more direct hits were scored in daylight Sunday. One merchant ship in port and quays were left afire.

British Middle East headquarters said there was nothing to report on activities of Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's 8th Army, getting its second wind after chasing Rommel's Africa corps 800 miles across north Africa.

Bringing Up Reserves

The victorious British desert fighters presumably were bringing up fresh forces and supplies for an assault on the German and Italian remnants drawn up in the natural fortifications of the El Aghella defile.

BAD NEWS

The heavy rumble of early morning traffic—the shrill note of a policeman's whistle—the throaty shouts of newsboys rose from the street below. Rita opened her eyes slowly, luxuriously, and then closed them again. For a priceless moment she lived over again the brief, glorious hours she had spent with Clark. BOOBY TRAPS

To dead men's hands the strings are tied

Which burst the shattering grenade

And thus are lured, from mercy's side,

The brave who dare to offer aid.

This trick is called a "booby trap,"

A method practised by the Jap.

A flag of truce is sent ahead.

A signal all will be secure.

Now blood has stained its surface red.

And left it just another lure;

Another suave, "Excuse me, please!"

Indulged in by the Japanese.

Well, once the booby trap is sprung,

And once the flag of truce is stained,

And once believed the lying tongue

Respect can never be regained.

Far down the years the wily Japs

Will long regret their booby traps.

Today's Talk

By George Matthew Adams

THE MIRROR OF THE MIND

I wonder if we think enough about the fact that the mind is really a mirror. From it is reflected all that we see and look upon. It also reflects all that we hold in that mind and which has given to it substance and character.

I read a book today by a very dear and valued friend—and it reflected him as does a mirror everything that is held before it. Books touch the imagination and of themselves reflect much that the authors meant to say—and often far more.

There are friends that even reflect long years ahead. Woodrow Wilson had such a mind. In time, people all over this war-ridden world will look upon those reflections as almost divine prophecy. It has always taken the world a long time to get caught up with its great men and women.

George Bernard Shaw once said: "England does not deserve its great men." In time, however, England comes to appreciate them and to appraise them at their worth. Few men of their time have been so maligned as was Abraham Lincoln.

Even his Gettysburg speech was looked upon at the time as insignificant—and by many as unworthy of a man at the height of a great action in time of its most serious and tragic hour. Yet that speech has become a mirror to the soul of Lincoln himself.

We cannot face a single human being without reflecting something of what we are. Also we reflect the influence of thousands of other minds and of all that has at one time or other, touched our consciousness. In ourselves, we are sensitive mirrors. Nothing can touch our conscious mind without being reflected in some way in turn.

In that sensitive, plastic mind of Lincoln, now in the Pantheon in Washington, D. C., the great Gettysburg speech created, I am the actual mirror that he meant to portray. I also see the sculptor himself.

We see ourselves, reflected in others, but also we see them reflected in us. It is this that does so much to make all the world of our skin to us. Spiritually, we are all one family. God grant at the end of this tragic war, that we may be better—the and irreparable—better.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Ghost of Fear."

Busy War Workers Lack 'B' And 'C' Books At Pittsburgh

MANY DRIVERS
FAIL TO ENROLL
BEFORE DEADLINE

Pittsburgh, Nov. 30 (AP)—Western Pennsylvania motorists filled their gas tanks today as the midnight deadline for gasoline rationing approached with unsolved transportation problems for workers in this busy war production area.

Overworked ration boards labored over the week-end to issue supplementary books to war workers, but few reported success. Failure of as many as 35 per cent of the motorists in some sections to register on time for "A" books and thousands of applications for additional gasoline improperly filled out caused the bottleneck, they said.

An Office of Price Administration spokesman here also blamed motorists for the last-minute jam.

Sufficient Warning
"The public has had sufficient warning to file applications early and to make them out clearly and correctly," he asserted.

Gasoline dealers reported filling thousands of cans for motorists hoping to procure a supply sufficient "to tide them over." However, Pittsburgh's Public Safety Director George E. A. Fairley warned that storing of gasoline was forbidden and declared violators caught would be prosecuted.

City Councilman A. L. Wolk said overloaded transportation facilities may create danger and asked traffic officials to make a quick survey, declaring:

"We've got to guard against serious accidents. We're going to overtax our street cars and buses and we want to take the proper measures to safeguard lives."

May Stagger Hours
The Allegheny county war transportation committee said a survey indicated street cars and buses, now carrying almost capacity loads, will be overloaded by 10 to 15 per cent as a result of rationing. The committee will meet tomorrow with officials of street car, bus and railroad companies to discuss staggering of hours, especially for non-essential workers, as one means of solving the anticipated problems.

Virtually all motorists clung to the hope that the area would be taken out of district 1, where the weekly ration is three gallons. OPA officials in Washington promised to rule today on an appeal from a western Pennsylvania committee that the area be placed in district 2 where four gallons a week would be permitted.

Flashes of Life
Philadelphia—Air raid wardens of Post 5, Sector 2, Zone 25 are wondering if some English Gremlins have crossed the Atlantic. Warden John F. Groeten hung an iron barrel hoop on a peg in post headquarters and discovered an hour later it was swinging like a pendulum. Other wardens found it still swinging the next day. Unable to produce any better explanation, somebody suggested the Gremlins, the make-believe little folk whom RAF pilots accuse when something goes wrong with their planes.

ADIEU FOR THE DURATION

DEER SEASON

OPENS; FIRST
HUNTER DIES

Harrisburg, Nov. 30 (AP)—Pennsylvania's 12-day deer hunting season opened today with at least one accidental death already chalked up.

The victim was Wirt R. Shilling, 44, of Templeton, an Armstrong county constable, shot through the heart by a bullet from his own pistol in a hunting camp tragedy near Snow Shoe in Centre county.

Coroner Charles Sheddler said Shilling was killed almost instantly when a .38 calibre dropped to the floor from his holster and exploded while Shilling was bending over a fire. He was accompanied by his 17-year-old son and a nephew, Clair Shilling, 34.

Defense workers made up a big part of the thousands of hunters who took to the field over the state in search of legal bucks.

The game commission said many war workers had reserved some or to her on the bus had a box in her lap from which lo moans issued. When the seatmate noticed Mrs. Semrad's shudders, she reassured her: "Don't worry, it's must my alligator, he lives a very quiet life at home, and I think this bump ride displeases him. Or he may have gas on his stomach."
